The screenshot displays the GoforFiles application interface. At the top left is a logo of a person with a magnifying glass. The main header reads "Welcome to GoforFiles" in white text on a dark background, with a "Smart Downloader" button on the right. Below the header, a paragraph of text states: "GoforFiles makes it very easy to find and download everything you need to be entertained, day or night. User-friendly interface provides intuitive navigation through millions of files. After installation you will get what you searched for...". The central part of the screen shows a list of search results for "VLC Media Player" with columns for file name, size, and status. Below this, a section titled "Additional features" is partially visible, showing icons for various file types like PDF, MP3, and MP4.
